Summary

At MicroDegree, our team leverages my skills in Amazon CloudFront, Amazon VPC, and Amazon Virtual Private Cloud to innovate within the AWS and DevOps landscape. This role complements my Project Internship at U R Rao Satellite Centre (URSC), ISRO, where we focus on integrating space technology with advanced cloud solutions. My ongoing Bachelor of Engineering in Computer Science at Visvesvaraya Technological University equips me with the theoretical knowledge to tackle complex problems.

Certified as an AWS Solutions Architect and DevOps Engineer, I am driven to excel in creating robust, scalable cloud infrastructures. My educational journey and hands-on experience in both cloud computing and space technology position me uniquely in these rapidly evolving fields. With a commitment to continuous learning and practical application, I am dedicated to contributing to groundbreaking projects that push the frontiers of technology.
